Ethics and Ex Parte

This year's ethics session will focus on ex-partake communications, conflicts of interest and Public Information Laws. Through specific examples, attendees will learn what ex-partake communications are and why they are unethical or illegal. Attendees will be given information on how to avoid making an ex-partake communication in either public or private communications. The various kinds of conflicts of interest will be discussed. Attendees will be given information about how to avoid a conflict of interest situation. Attendees will learn about the relevance and importance of public information laws and how this applies to them. This class will be taught by Commissioner Mark Christie, VA, who has presented on these topics at numerous NARUC and MACRUC meetings. He also is a member of the adjunct faculty at the University of Virginia Law School.
